

Jill Farrington is Regional Medical Officer, Cardiovascular diseases and Diabetes and a.i. Regional Advisor, Management of Noncommunicable diseases /Cancer at the WHO Regional Office for Europe.

Jill Farrington has over 25 years' experience in public health, working internationally for WHO and the World Bank in Europe, Asia and Africa. Her broad responsibilities include integrated NCD policy, NCD investment cases, management of NCDs, and strengthening health systems for better NCD outcomes.